

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I'm a 29 year old Director/Video Editor looking for a challenging job related to Tv and Film. In order to get closer to my goals and exploit my full potential, I need to leave my comfort zone (which is an amazing place called Ecuador). I'm ready to travel and work overseas so I can make my professional dreams come true.

I have 8 years of experience as a freelance editor and 3 years as a director. One of the things I love the most is to work with talented and passionate people from all over the world so we can share thoughts and gain experience as we get involved in the creation of a visual product.

If you're reading this, I'm pretty sure this CV got into the right hands. You're a few steps closer to get to know a funny, social, workaholic, night owl Latin American professional willing to make the best projects of all time. All I need is you to say "Yes" to my request (and a sponsorship from your company so I can work within the US, of course). Thanks for your time. I can't wait to work with you and your team.
