

The bathtub

written by waldo capote

tlf: 644 563 054
mail: waldocapote@gmail.com

1 EXT. STREET . DAY

The singer/actress walks for a street of downtown. She sees some workers taking out an old refrigerator from one of the apartments. They put it on the sidewalk with many other things they have been taking out. There is a truck parked beside the things. The singer sees an old bathtub, she goes closer and sees it looking for breaks. The workers keep taking out things, an old mattress, chairs and a table. The singer/actress talks to one of the workers to take the bathtub.

2 EXT. CITY STREETS . DAY

The truck goes for the downtown streets. The singer/actress is in the truck bed with the bathtub. We see the buildings, the city streets. She is singing.

3 INT. STAIR OF AN APARTMENT'S BUILDING . DAY

The workers are carrying the bathtub up the stairs.

4 INT. APARTMENT (STUDIO) . DAY

The singer/actress enters to the living room of her apartment, two workers enters after her with the bathtub and, following the indication of the singer/actress, they put it in the center of the living room.

It's an apartment(Studio) with the kitchen in the same room. There are many moving boxes piled up. Some of the boxes are opened, there are some books, clothes, plates, pots and a guitar on the floor. There is an ironing board unfolded and an iron on the floor.

The singer/actress takes out money from wallet and gives it to one of the workers. The men walked out and she closed the door. She spins around and stare at the bathtub in the center of the room, the doorbell rings and she opens the door. There is an arm extended, without seen the rest of the body, with the hand closed, the hand opens and the bathtub plug falls but keeps hanging from it's chain. She takes it and the man shows his head and say goodbye. The man leaves.

5 INT. APARTMENT (STUDIO) . DAY

The singer/actress puts a big pot with water on fire. She looks inside one of the boxes, keeps looking in the others until she finds an old tape recorder. She sits beside the bathtub with her guitar and the tape recorder and begins to try different music ideas and record them.

6 INT.APARTMENT(STUDIO).DAY

The water in the pot is boiling, the singer/actress pours it in the bathtub and puts more on the fire.

7 INT.APARTMENT(STUDIO).DAY

The singer/actress is standing staring at the ironing board. She is removing the folding legs. She is looking in the boxes. She finds a handsaw.

8 INT.APARTMENT(STUDIO).DAY

She has put the ironing board,without legs, on the bathtub making like a table. She is cutting the part that is sticking out(planning to use it like that more times).

9 INT.APARTMENT(STUDIO).DAY

The singer/actress pours more water into the bathtub. She takes the tape recorder and put it on the ironing board. She undresses herself(avoiding nudity on camera) and gets in the bathtub.

10 INT.APARTMENT(STUDIO).DAY

The singer/actress with the guitar sings in the bathtub.

11 INT.APARTMENT(STUDIO).DAY

The singer/actress looks at the door, she realize someone is trying to open it. She stands up, the guitar covering up her breast, looking at the door(the shot is a MEDIUM SHOT from her waist up for avoiding nudity). A man enters, he is dressed with a suit and a tie, with a bike and a backpack. He looks at(finding out) the singer/actress singing to him standing in the bathtub.

12 INT.APARTMENT(STUDIO).DAY

The man applauds and walks to the bathtub.They kiss. She gets him into the bathtub and begins to take his clothes off. He is without the shirt and she has use his tie to blindfolding him. She kiss him.

THE END

Screenplay by Waldo Capote

waldocapote@gmail.com