EXT. FIELDS - CONTINUOUS

The young Ra Mu still has his gaze set skyward.

THE SKY

(beat)

The SPACESHIPS come in so fast its as if they just appeared.

One of the ufo's is ENORMOUS with large tall BUILDING like structures on top. It looks like a floating CITY. Around it are many saucer shaped spaceships.

They move over the palace.

ON TITANOUS

He and his men watch the ufo's above him.

From the ground we can see a BLACK SWARM coming from the spires of the large spaceship.

IN THE FIELDS

Ra Mu and the other field workers watch the sky as the black mass descends on the palace.

SITA (V.O.)

The Anunnaki's reign spread throughout the stars.

ON THE SWARM

SITA (V.O.) (CONT'D)

To worlds with creatures, more terrifying than any giant.

As it falls towards us, we see the individual CREATURES that make up the swarm.

The PISHACHAS are black as tar with bright RED eyes.

Amongst the swarm is a much larger CREATURE hidden in a cloud of bellowing smoke.

ON TITANOUS

He slowly falls back while his men stand in awe.

TITANOUS

No. I knew they would be back one day. But, not like this.

The Pishachas rain down on the giants. They claw and tear at the skin then bury themselves into the wounds.

The POSSESSED turn dark themselves and start to attack the other Nibiru.

Most of the Pishachas hit the ground. Their veins bulge and many of them turn INVISIBLE. Some MORPH into other creatures and attack the giants.

Titanous hacks down the possessed Nibiru and squashes the human sized Pishachas.

The cloud of smoke hits the ground. Stepping forth, still surrounded in smoke is KALI. She stands close to FIFTEEN FEET tall with four arms. In each hand she wields very large swords.

TITANOUS (CONT'D)

(beat)

Kali.

Titanous sees her. He tries to flee into his palace.

Kali sees him and pursues.

CUT TO:

INT. TITANOUS' PALACE - CONTINUOUS

Titanous closes the heavy metal doors and barricades it shut. He backs away from the door, gripping his axe tightly.

SITA (V.O.)

Creatures who in their own right...

Through the seams of the door we can see the shadow of Kali approaching.

SITA (V.O.) (CONT'D)

...Were Gods themselves.

Smoke starts to seep in.

Before Titanous can react the door is pounded repeatedly. Each hit dents the door in until it is too damaged to keep standing.

The doors fall hard to the stone floor.

Kali enters. She smiles when she sees Titanous. BLOOD drips from mouth like saliva from a hungry beast. Around her neck are the GOLD dipped SKULLS of various ALIEN creatures.

Titanous raises his axe. He gathers enough courage to charge an attack.

Screaming wildly, the giant hacks and slashes. The smaller Kali dodges and parries his blows with her many swords.

Though smaller, Kali is just as strong if not stronger than Titanous. Her four arms move quickly, cutting the giant across his face then his arms and legs.

The deep cuts bring the giant to his knees. He lets go of his axe.

Kali increases her mass until she's as big as Titanous.

Having lost all will to fight a god, Titanous does the only thing he can.

TITANOUS

I beg you Queen Kali, please grant me mercy.

He raises his hand to surrender and instantly, she CUTS it off. Titanous screams out in pain.

Kali grabs Titanous by the throat and lifts him in the air. She stands him on his feet. Her grip looses only a bit to slid down, exposing the his throat.

TITANOUS (CONT'D)

P-please, I can be of use to you here.

Titanous looks Kali in her black pearl shined eyes. Even though she looks more or less human, her absence of any expression is very alien.

But when she does smile, it reveals a mouth full of BLOODY teeth.

Kali, I beg you, do not kill...

One of Kali's swords whacks his head off, just above her hand. Another hacks into his torso while the third and fourth cut off his legs.

CONTINUED: (2)

She snatches her sword from Titanous' chest allowing it to fall with the rest of the bloody pieces.

Kali drops two of her swords so that she can kneel down and pick up the head.

CUT TO:

EXT. FIELDS - CONTINUOUS

Not far from the palace one of the Nibiru makes his last stand. Surrounded by Pishachas, the giant swings his massive hammer wildly.

The blunt surface of the hammer carries several of the black alien creatures in its upswing and sends them flying.

GIANT

Bring it on, slugs!

The creatures gang up on him. They bite and claw at the giant. He drops his hammer and grabs handfuls of the Pishachas and throws them about.

With all his might he frees himself of the attackers.

GIANT (CONT'D)

Peons! you will not have me this day...

Suddenly, the giant is struck in the back of his head with the HEAD of Titanous. It knocks him to one knee.

Dazed. The giant holds his head. As he tries to stand he sees the severed head on the ground.

(beat)

Lord, Lord Titanous? But how...

Kali's sword plunges into his back and into the ground.

She stands over the giant's dying impaled body, returning to her normal size. The army of Pishachas regroup around her.

KALI

(looking to the sky)
It is finished, great ones.
