EXT. DAY

A lush earth untouched by human hands, pre-human earth, bustling with wildlife. We narrow in on two adolescent jumping spiders, twins INDIGO and AZURE, playing around showing off their parkour skills. Both spiders are beautifully silver gray colored, with slightly different bright patterns around their faces and abdomens. Azure, the sister, is larger.

AZURE

Nice Kong gainer little brother.

INDIGO

Hey I'm older, smarty eyes, don't you forget it! And I got the skillzzz, so watch out!

Indigo does some fantastic moves, showing off. Azure giggles and smirks. Sibling rivalries.

AZURE

Like you'd ever let me forget it. Big sister comin at yeah!

INDIGO

Yeah, yeah! Go on then, let's see what you got.

A strong wind starts up as Azure tries some parkour acrobatics. She yells out as she's tossed into the air a ways. Indigo yells and races after her. A burst of white light cracks in the sky. Indigo whinces. A large scorpion wind spider floats down near where Azure is. The menacing creature takes Azure and takes flight again, by ballooning and lightning flight.

Ballooning is done by releasing a spindle of web into the air. Lightning flight is the use of electricity in the atmosphere. Both techniques allow spiders to navigate flight.

INDIGO

Azure! Noooo!!!

Indigo jumps valiantly through the air to grab his sister, but misses. He falls back to earth and watches her disappear through another blinding crack of light. He cries out in anguish knowing she's disappeared. The wind dies a bit.

A gentle crackling sound with lightning bolts causes Indigo to look up in another direction. A beautiful sacred geometry pattern forms and four spider figures emerge, balloon floating down directly in front of him.

Each character has a musical identification- an instrument or harmony. When all are together their pieces all play together. Like Peter and the Wolf... Strong influences of vibration, frequency, harmony throughout the series.

They land near Indigo and approach. The leader, an albino black widow, RAINY. And 3 others; LUNA, a giant Australian orb weaver, HENRY, the honky tonkin wolf spider, and RENALDO, a Mexican recluse.

RAINY

Indigo, you must come with us to save Azure.

INDIGO

What's happening!? Who are you?!
Where's my sister?!?

HENRY

Take it easy kiddo, we're here to help ya.

RAINY

There's not enough time to explain now.
You and Azure have been watched over since your birth here in Xitalpa.

Renaldo watches the sky and fiddles with an astrolabe like pocket compass. Indigo is distraught.

RENALDO

It's time Rain, we need to make our move.

Luna steps forward toward Indigo, beckoning him with her warm powerful presence and 2 spider legs. The sky begins to crack and Henry let's out a web thread and positions himself to take flight.

RAINY

You have to trust us child. We need your help to rescue Azure. Listen to your spirit and come along.

Indigo reaches out for Luna, slowly. The four release threads, raise their abdomens and are lifted away by their navigation, the breeze and crackling energy through the air.

Renaldo signals the coordinates and portal type and Luna conjures it open. A spider leg sign language, tai-chi.

RENALDO

Sri Yantra! Up northwest! It's a puller!

LUNA

I know how to get home, Naldo!

Indigo has a front seat as he travels in Luna's arms feeling safer than he's ever felt.

INT. PORTAL. SPACEY WONDER

A magnificent sacred geometry shape appears and they are powerfly pulled toward and through this mirage looking wonder. Henry hoots wildly as they enter.

As they momentarily pass through the portal each of their individual tunes play together in harmony as their physical bodies fluctuate between ether and matter.

Indigo experiences this bliss for the first time. They come out the other side and float to the earth.

EXT. AUSTRALIA. DUSK

LUNA

Enjoy it little mate; not always filled with splendor.

INDIGO

What was that?

HENRY

That my friend was your first rodeo!

They gently land in Australia, Luna's home, welcomed by many. They enter an enormous webbed area. Rainy and Renaldo approach Indigo.

RENALDO

Time for the talk amigo.

INDIGO

I wish Azure could've seen that.

RAINY

She will... We're going to explain everything young one. Listen up now.

There's lots of bustling about, it's an army of spiders preparing for war. They settle Indigo down in a more private spot with Luna giving some orders in the background and Henry fixing some food for them.

RAINY (cont.)

Very unfortunate event, Azure being abducted like that. We usually don't fall under surprise attack. No matter, all part of the plan, as they say..

INDIGO

Who says? What plan? Who, I mean what took her? I've never seen anything-

RENALDO

Wind scorpion. Extremely far from home-Dumal.

Renaldo is going over his navigation maps and gadgets, locating Dumal.

RENALDO

Here. We'll send scouts shortly. We must be ready in 3 nightfalls. We'll land right before their dawn.

RAINY

Hmm...

Indigo- you and Azure are chosen born.

INDIGO

What?

RAINY

The creators dear boy, Grandmother Spider herself, placed you and Azure in your forms to join us, the Spiderwing.
We are 4, working to maintain universal balance. We've been watching over you and Azure since birth, discreetly guiding and keeping you together until it was time. Time to join us, the Spiderwing, traveling through dimensions by the powers Above, Below,
Within and Beyond... Great Sky Council Grandmother, Nansee, Shay and Osa have granted us the eternal maps and guide us accordingly... to create balance.

Indigo looks like he's listening to a crazy person.

INDIGO

I don't know what you're talking about and I don't really give two shoots of a web.

RAINY

(under her breath)

Oh me oh my, teenagers.

INDIGO

Look, I appreciate you and all that, but when are we going to save Azure? If she's so important, what the heck are we waiting for?

Henry, laughing, starts serving plates of spider food to everyone.

HENRY

That's comin' buster. Don't jump the gun now. Your training to become one of us evil do-gooders starts right after chow. Now, take a bit of advice and don't piss off the white lady. You should see what she does to her boyfriends.

RAINY

Hmmm. You should see what he did to his mother...

RENALDO

Aye dios mio. Don't start you two.
Inigo- pay attention to your elders with patience, respect and attention.

You and your sister's lives depend on it... And not like it's a big deal to you or anything now, but the balance of the entire multiverse as well...

It vaguely dawns on Indigo what's happening...

INDIGO

Holy cheese and crackers...

LUNA

I think he's starting to get it ladies and gentlemen...

RAINY

Luna- he starts training with you and Cyclops immediately.

Indigo looks relieved. He and Luna smile at each other.

HENRY

Cyclops?!? Lord almighty. Good luck kid. I'll be sayin my prayers for ya.

LUNA

Don't mind him Indigo. He's got a thing with powerful women...

RAINY

Mommy issues...

HENRY

Leave my mother out of it woman!

RAINY

Out of what, your mouth?

Henry spits and starts picking up dishes angrily.

HENRY

Ya cut me deep, Rain, ya cut me deep.

EXT. AUSTRALIA. EVENING

Troops of mainly giant orb weavers are training and preparing for the battle in Dumal, to save Azure. All below a canopy blanket of web above.

Luna is leading Indigo to Cyclops. Indigo looking overwhelmed... Shock and awe.

LUNA

What is it kid?

INDIGO

All of this is for Azure?

LUNA

And you. We need the both of you.

INDIGO

Geez, any chance you got the wrong spiders?

LUNA

Great gig in the sky doesn't make mistakes sweetheart... Not to worry! You'll find out soon enough you're everything, anything and especially nothing all at the same time... We work the balance, that's it kiddo...

They approach the giant she warrior Australian golden orb weaver CYCLOPS. She's got patches over all of her eyes except one. Worn and torn, pirate like. She turns toward them in her full armored warrior goddess glory. She's double the size of Luna and Luna is 3x the size of Indigo.

CYCLOPS

So ya's gave him the talk then?

LUNA

As much as possible I suppose. He's come for rescue training now.

CYCLOPS

(to Indigo)

Talk about the birds and bees, huh mate!

She laughs raucously.

INDIGO

(to Luna)

I'm scared of that, that giant woman...

LUNA

Nothing to fear kid. You're in good legs with this one. She's an old honey bee... Just like, with a blow torch.

Luna winks and salutes as she walks off.

LUNA (cont.)

Have fun little ninja!

Indigo gulps as Luna disappears.

CYCLOPS

Alright little Jumper, come along. I hear you and your sister are into parkour?

INDIGO

Uh, yeah actually.

CYCLOPS

Well you got a couple legs up then there mate! Balance in the universe begins with balance in the body.

Parkour requires massive balance and agility. Let's see what ya got Jumper.

They come to a giant agility training obstacle course. Indigo is quite excited.

INDIGO

Radical!

EXT. CHOW AREA. NIGHT

Main Spiderwings discuss the fate of Indigo and Azure and their mission around a sacred fire.

Henry is playing a silly country tune on a spider's lute. It looks like a web. He's making fun of everybody.

HENRY

Renaldo is not one to talk to...
He'll literally gut you or cut you...
You don't get to decide...
But he's quick, no yuck, you're in luck...

Rainy, lovely Rainy oh Rainyyyyy...
What's with the resting Cyclops face my good friend?
You know that it's a never-ending never end...
So don't worry, please don't eat me and let's just enjoy the ride...

Luna, large Luna, lovely terrifying
Luna...
My dear friend, I'm so glad we're on the same side...
She's a dragon, drinks pints and breathes fire.
She sends all the troops into desire...
But get close?

You'll be jelly in the belly inside her...

Luna throws a bottle of beer at him as he strums wildly. He dodges with expert spidey sense and continues to play.

HENRY

Ya missed!!!

LUNA

(singing)

Henry sings us his swamp tales,
You know that he learned 'em in jail,
That's most likely where he learned how to cook that dirty old crook...
Because he ate his poor mum like smoked quail...

Luna laughs loud and hard as the note pings off key.

HENRY

(sharply)

Alright then, geez. Haven't y'all ever heard of arachnomatricide? It's a god dang evolutionary advantage! I didn't know what the heck. She said, "Come and eat kids!"

Everyone is sniggering a bit. Henry is pissed.

HENRY

Maybe that's all y'all's problem! Yer mamas just left you all alone! Half your brothers and sisters dead as door nails all over the place, hell, eating THEM! Flippin nechrocannibal jerks is what you are!

Luna is laughing hysterically.

LUNA

Just know deep in your heart Henry, that we love you dearly. And if ever it's your time and the good gods call you home, just know we'll cook you up just right...

HENRY

Geeehosephat!

RENALDO

All right you two.

RAINY

Ahhhhh. You know you've given us an eternity of joke material now, right?
Wolf soup?

HENRY

Grrrrr. Renaldo! Kill her!

RAINY

Sweet delectable Henry. You know we love you and wouldn't have any fun at all without you... Come on!

HENRY

Yeah yeah, eat me... Where's the kid?

The mood settles and they start talking shop.

RAINY

He'll train for the next two days...
Until Dumal. I pray he's ready.

LUNA

In and out. We'll be fine. He'll be fine!

RENALDO

Cyclops and her team are the best. I have every confidence he will be ready for his first mission and become what prophecy has aligned.

RAINY

I hate it when they're wrong.

RENALDO

It's rare, but yes, it happens...

RAINY

Let's all focus on Azure and Indigo's meeting with Great Sky Council... Manifesting success in Dumal.

HENRY

Yes, yes. "She often gives herself very good advice, but very seldom follows it..."

Rainy glares.

Henry strums the foreboding Dueling Banjos tune. View pans out over gigantic grassy/sparse tree area covered in a blanket of web. Fireflies magically dot the area.

EXT. AUSTRALIA. DAY

Spiderwing and troops are mass preparing to zap through a portal to Dumal for the ensuing battle to save Azure. Spiderwing group are with Indigo. He, Luna, Cyclops and a small group of assassin spiders are all wearing flying squirrel suits. The rest have assortments of weapons and armor. Spiderwing address their newest member Indigo.

RENALDO

Swoop in, grab Azure, swoop out. Nada mas. You don't even look at anything except your sister. Mida- focus!

RAINY

There will be horrible things. Do as Renaldo says and stay focused. It is imperative we save Azure and bring her home to Sky Council. You have to receive your destiny together. Remember?

INDIGO

Yes, of course. I want her home the most, trust me.

HENRY

Boy, you the luckiest 8 legged in the wild wild west. Luna, Cy and the assassins, are you kiddin me? Cake walk bud!

Henry holds his shoulders and pats him. Luna and Rainy start doing a tai-chi type movement representing Above Below Within and Beyond. Renaldo is joined by Henry as he fiddles with his Astrolabe. Lightning starts cracking and the troops start positioning their bodies and feeling the air with their tiny hairs. They let out their flight threads and start to take off!

CYCLOPS

You're ready! If you lose us, get your butt to a portal or underground. We'll find you! And whatever you do- don't let her go!

Cyclops and Indigo raise leg tips to each other without touching, sharing the energy. It lights up with magic.

CYCLOPS

Let's see that wing.

They loose a thread of silk up into the sky, lift their abdomens high and lift off! Little zaps and cracks of lightning are all around. A giant crack of lightning goes off that sizzles a beautiful sacred geometry portal. Two smaller ones to each side. Ride the lightning by Metallica plays.

HENRY

Yeehaw!!! Ride the lightning boy!!!

Indigo is nervous but determined. Henry dances in the air.

HENRY (cont.)

Storm chasers don't got poop on us!!!

INT. PORTAL. SPACEY

Every portal is a little bit different. Spiderwing zoom through a beautiful design and then drift in and out of their material bodies... Energy and matter. And then exit to Dumal.

EXT. DUMAL SCORPION CAVE. DAWN

Dumal is dark, dry and reddish black. Scorpion wind spiders crawl the earth, wasps buzz the sky. A few moths.

Azure is suffering amongst a pile of spiders, all different kinds, mostly alive, some clearly dead. She's missing a leg. Everybody starts running around. A giant shiny black scorpion comes slowly out of the darkness of a deep cave. As the spiders scatter, we see hundreds of baby scorpions on the back of her. She stabs and pierces one of the poor creatures close to Azure. Azure struggles to escape the area just in time by climbing up the outer cave wall. She breathes in anguish as lightning crashes in the distance.

We see what looks like starling murmurs in the distance. Azure can barely focus. Wasps zoom by and the mother scorpion suddenly jolts to attention and slowly climbs out of the den. She screams like godzilla. Scorpion wind spiders are moving faster. Spiders start to land and fight. Bug juice is flying everywhere!

Zap! Zap! Two more, smaller sacred geometry portals open. Closer to where Azure is. Several spiders come through. Three dots move like bullets through the sky arching straight toward the den.

We see a close up of Indigo, Luna and Cyclops diving in. Indigo closes his eyes and tries to send a telepathic message to Azure.

INDIGO (V.O.)

Sister, we're here to save you. Please be strong. I feel you're near. Help us find you...

Azure's eyes open wide. There are spiders crawling and falling over her as she clings inside a crevice. She sees an opening and feebly crawls out and up the wall. Scorpion wind spiders fall off the edge of the cliff above flying past her. She dodges a body.

INDIGO (v.o.)

That's it sister. Find the strength. Cast a thread, take wind.

She makes it over the edge and sees a massive battle. She struggles to make it through and takes a terrible hit to one of her legs. She cries out and falls.

AZURE

I can't!!! I can't!!!

INDIGO (v.o.)

Get up Azure, I see you! Get up, get to that opening and cast!

AZURE

Not even a breeze, impossible.

INDIGO

Trust me!

The ground starts to vibrate in rhythm and then intensifies. Azure gets a look of horror on her face as the scorpion mother roars again and a horde of scorpions race toward the den.

Rainy jumps in the air to down a wasp and screams orders.

RAINY

Retreat!!! Renaldo, conjure the return!

INDIGO

Sister now! Do it NOW!!!

Azure leaps through the battle, spinning a thread as she makes it to the edge and lifts into the air. She hears several loud zaps. Indigo grabs her and holds tight as her line and his aerodynamic acrobatics start to carry them back upward.

Luna and Cyclops land. Cyclops starts fighting and Luna immediately joins Renaldo in conjuring the next portals to escape.

RAINY

Take wing spiders! Retreat!

The scorpion horde descends. Most of the spiders are flying away fighting wasps. Those that remain are getting taken over. Luna takes off- screaming for Cyclops and Henry.

LUNA

Get out of there! Come on!!!

Cyclops is swinging a giant web mace around and taking out scorpions. Henry kicks one in the face as he leaps up onto a wasp and rides it like a bucking bronco. Luna screams desperately for Cyclops as she is lost to scorpions.

LUNA

NO!!! Cy, please, no!!!

CYCLOPS

For Cailleach!!!!!!!!!!!!

Cyclops valiantly cries out before she disappears, and then sets off her self-destruct explosive taking out hundreds of scorpions as the spiders fly through the portal.

Henry grabs Luna as she screams for Cyclops.

INT. PORTAL. SPACEY BLISS

Azure is held tight by Indigo and opens her eyes wide as she feels the portal energy surround her.

EXT. AUSTRALIA. LATE DAY

Indigo and Azure emerge out of the portal. Azure looks better already. She's euphoric after experiencing the portal.

AZURE

I didn't know we could do that!

INDIGO

You're not gonna believe what we can do.

They gently land and immediately Rainy and Renaldo come next. Rainy approaches the twins.

RAINY

Azure, I'm Rainy. So glad to finally meet you.

INDIGO

Sis, meet your guardian angel.

AZURE

Thank you, I don't know what to say.

RAINY

Get her underground Indigo, we'll talk soon.

RENALDO (to Rainy)
A few wasps made it through.

RAINY(to twins)
Go on. You're home now. Get to the medic.

Indigo is helping Azure walk away into a grassy area entering a tunnel. Henry lands with Luna. They are distressed and in shock. Indigo looks back and overhears.

HENRY
We've. lost. Cyclops...

Luna falls to her knees weeping.

RAINY
No...

Renaldo growl grunts out of frustration and anger. He takes out a knife and flies off to attack the remaining wasps.

A muffled groan of anguish is heard and Henry and Rainy look over to see Indigo watching them in great emotional pain. He turns with Azure and disappears underground, holding it in.

Rainy kneels with with Luna to console her. Her and Henry make eye contact and then hold their legs up, holding mystical space for their friend and partner Luna. The tips of their legs light up in golden light. Luna still suffering intensely, but it lessens.

They stop and Henry takes flight to help the troops and Renaldo with the rest of the Wasps and a few moths.

INT. UNDERGROUND EARTHEN TUNNEL

Azure and Indigo walk sullen and quietly. Indigo struggling emotionally and still helping Azure- she is limping and weak. She looks at him with great care.

AZURE

We've changed brother.

INDIGO

She taught me how to save you. She was strong and beautiful and funny. She cared about us. And believed in me.

AZURE

I think she came with us, through there.

Azure motions/looks upward implying sky.

INDIGO

You felt that too? I thought it was the portal.

AZURE

What's happening to us?

INDIGO

Oh just wait, you have no idea how weird it's gonna get.

AZURE

(crying, weakening)

Thank you. For finding me.

INDIGO

We have to get you to medical.

They come into a medical area and creatures come to help. We then see from Azure's view, Indigo reassuring her and Rainy advising. Her vision is a bit hazy as she is undergoing healing procedures.

INDIGO

Everything is going to be good sis, they're fixing you right up. Rainy is here.

Azure is in and out of consciousness, she overhears/sees Indigo and Rainy having a discussion off to the side.

RAINY

You'll both go before Sky Council soon,
all will be revealed.

INDIGO

She needs more time to process and heal, she's not ready. Neither am I.

RAINY

You don't have a choice.

They notice Azure watching and listening to them. She closes her eyes slowly and fades to black. Voices stirring.

INT. AZURE'S ROOM. DAY

Beautiful sunny half indoor/outdoor area with lots of foliage.
Indigo sits with Azure as she wakes , Spiderwing tribe nearby.

INDIGO

Azure come on, wake up already. I'm bored.

AZURE

God I hope that was all a bad dream.

INDIGO

Nope, check out your new sticks!

He flicks the 2 new titanium like legs. Chimy sound. Azure moans. Rainy and the rest approach.

RAINY

Hello Azure. We know you had an extremely hard time little one, but unfortunately, fate had her way and you and your brother aren't children anymore.

AZURE

If children knew what happened to me there'd never be children again...

RAINY

Azure, you and your brother are no ordinary spiders. We, the Spiderwing-Luna, Henry, Renaldo and myself, have been watching over you since birth.

Rainy motions to each Spiderwing member as she mentions them.

RAINY(cont.)

You and your brother, are chosen born... Tomorrow, you both dreamwalk before Great Sky Council- Grandmother Spider. To receive your destiny and take your place with us.

RENALDO

You are part of maintaining the balance now, little one. This catastrophe that happened to you in Dumal, was awful, but necessary. They're taking out entire systems, and thanks to you, we now have their portal maps and the cancer can be managed.. All part of Grandmother's web, I've no doubt.

LUNA

Great sacrifice, great sorrow, great triumph, great celebration. The extremes of universal matter expand and contract constantly and we; and now you and your brother, have been tasked with the honor of neutrality.

Henry rolls his eyes while Azure is looking confused and overwhelmed. He jovially explains.

HENRY

These spiders are talkin Chinese! Do you speak Chinese?

AZURE

Actually yes, I speak 15 languages and I am still kinda lost.

HENRY

15 languages? Put that on her resume! Well darlin, you're not the only confused one... Simply put- we get the best of both worlds. We get to play good guy/bad guy... all the time...

RENALDO

He's oversimplifying, but yes. Whenever Grandmother and the Council require us on a mission-that's where we go and exactly what we do...

RAINY

Aaand doesn't always seem like we're the good guys... Which can be confusing and frightening, but we must put our faith and trust into Grandmother's giant web of creation and try to understand the big picture...

LUNA

It's really brutal sometimes. Not everybody makes it... There is great loss and devastation...

They're all standing closer to the twins now. Henry consoles Luna a bit.

HENRY

But we're a family of sorts, and we have each other until that day comes. And there's lots of cool beautiful wondrous stuff in between... So it goes for everybody I'm told... We just get magical powers while we're doin it... So yeehaw for us, am I right guys?

Henry shows a semi toothy grin. Rainy is tolerant of Henry for once...

RAINY

Tomorrow you both must go before Grandmother and Sky Council. Do not be frightened. It's like entering a dream and is quite enjoyable. Grandmother Spider's guidance is like a warm night with a gentle breeze. So comforting.

There is a pause of longing between all of them.

RENALDO

All of us surely wish we were going.

Luna gives a loud sigh.

LUNA

Until tomorrow then jumpers- Rest well and let us have a look at that new hardware Azure.

INDIGO

Yeah sis! I'm so jealous, you're like the bionic bug or something!

AZURE

Oh my goodness. I have no idea how to drive these things, let's see here.

They move aside and Henry holds open a vine curtain for her to pass through and try her new legs.

HENRY

That's it little doggy, get along right here this way.

She passes and Henry takes one of her arms like a proper gentleman. They exit the room area into an open lush forest. Looks like a magic fairy garden. A few fireflies are around a waterfall.

EXT. OPEN FIELD. DAY

The Spiderwing members ready Indigo and Azure for their portal jump to meet Grandmother Spider and Sky Council.

LUNA

Silence is how you speak. They'll show you. It's like a voice from here.

Luna motions to her center.

HENRY

They like to take your skin off too.

INDIO/AZURE

WHAT??!!!

Henry laughs and the others smile or smirk.

RENALDO

It doesn't hurt. Don't worry. It's a little bit like molting... But in a ghosty way.

Indigo and Azure look at each other with a worried glance. Renaldo and Luna start opening the portal with Tai-Chi type movements. Henry licks his finger and holds it up in the breeze. A giant spiral starts to form.

RAINY

Remain open and humble. You are safe.
See you on the other side kiddos.

Rainy winks, Indigo and Azure set a thread into the breeze and we hear crackling that carries them into the spiral. Ominous trance music plays. Mose ft. Suyana, Live at Heart Culture.

EXT. SPIRAL PORTAL. OUTER/INNER SPACE

They gently land on an alabaster/marble/sand looking area. A gate appears with two enormous stone spiders erect on both sides. The whole scene is a bit misty.

They move toward the gate. Azure's left arms and Indigo's right arms touch each other like little high fives, very symmetrical. They have no control over it.

Their bodies turn to fire, they look frightened as they burn to blackness. The ashen bodies gently blow away turning to dandelion wishes, revealing two bright glowing orbs that remain.

Spirit spiders step out of the giant stone ones, and open the gate. The orbs float through and stop in the middle of a great spiral.

Azure's new body forms out of snowflakes, intricate and unique each one. Indigo's forms out of lightning and thunder. Visions of them from their childhood catching snowflakes on their tongues and arms and of them saying "lightning and funder" and giggling flow through as their bodies form. They complete and are slightly different colors and larger than before.

From their front and above, a great spider Nansee appears with African/Australian patterns on his face and body. His face in the shape of a Masai shield.

From the Right, Osra appears. Sanskrit/Egyptian and Middle Eastern pattern on him.

From the left, Shaytani appears next. Indigenous Americas symbology and patterns on her.

Last from behind, a large rumbling/vibration causes the new twins to turn slowly. A massive Grandmother Spider, Hope, emerges. She looks upon the twins and says with her powerful heart language.

HOPE

Hello my child, welcome.

They naturally stare in awe then bow in reverence.

Fade out, rising.

THE END
