

Claire Violet Coleman

Makeup Artist + Hair

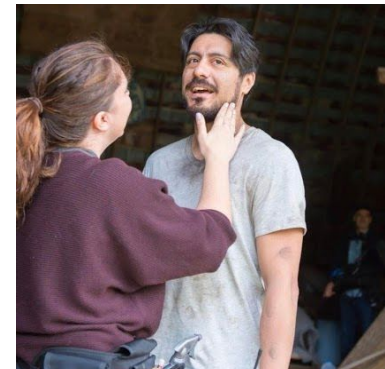

Claire Violet Coleman is a professional artist working in film, television, theater, editorial, and commercial productions. Growing up on a stage as a dancer - working as a makeup artist was the career she didn't realize she was grooming herself for. Dance taught Claire stage makeup at an early age, as well as, what it feels like to be on display as a performer. Claire has a talent for creating characters with subtle and deliberate realistic details, in addition to the ability to execute the basics of beautiful skin and clean beauty. She has a passion for her work and a curiosity to keep learning, which leads to an in-depth understanding of the makeup industry and the specialized skills necessary for jobs in many different aspects of production.
