Vlasto Peyitch is a type who is comfortable playing the gangster, however he has also played the professor and the nice husband seated on the sofa next to his wife (The Errand of Angels). The Yugoslavian born actor has shown his flexibility as he has appeared in many independent films mostly shot in Germany.

2011 proved to be his busiest year he worked in over 15 productions. He was cast for TV, movies, Independent film and a few short films, (all professionally produced), often traveling between Berlin, Munich and Switzerland.

He has also proved his skills in the commercial market with his effective character face.

Now settled down on Aruba/Caribbeans.
